

We translate-
You get a ready-made solution

-
- Written Translation
 - Interpretation
 - Website Translation
 - Notarized translations, apostille
 - Layout, design, and printing
-

Clients choosing a translation agency often ask:

- How are you better than others? We need a reliable contractor.
- Do you have the resources and experience to do high quality specialized translations?
- How do you guarantee quality?
- How quickly do you work?
- Do you do notary certified translations

We do have something to answer all these questions!

The iTrex Translation Agency is...

Well-established processes and 3 levels of quality control over 2500 verified translators in 47 countries

written translations with a speed of 200 pages per day

17 additional services notarization, apostille, offset printing of translated materials, etc.

The iTrex Translation Agency has been on the market since 2006

Principles

Quality at the best price

We consider a high-quality translation a result that fully corresponds with your expectations. To ensure such a result, we are developing 3 components of our business: professionalism of the people, efficiency of work, and the reliability and functionality of the technology.

Strict adherence to deadlines

A late translation is a bad translation. We know this and complete work on time.

Clear and simple pricing

This allows you to eliminate any errors in calculations and avoid surprises. We will always tell you how to reduce costs on a translation.

Highly qualified personnel

The iTrex staff is always friendly and focused on effectively and correctly handling the tasks of its clients.

Benefits and Advantages

A large number of translators and editors allowing for a large volume of orders to be fulfilled, including during peak periods of workload.

Reduction of cost for translation services by selecting an optimal work schedule and level of the translators.

Reduction of translation time by parallel execution of different projects according to orders

Discretionary access to information guarantees confidentiality

Saving the client's time at the order placing stage through the simplest and most convenient order receiving system.

Contact us now!

tms@itrex.ru
www.itrex.ru

