

Dear Ryoma,

It has been a great pleasure to work with you on our FIFA Women's World Cup 2019 project, and we would like to convey our sincerest thanks to you for an excellent cooperation.

The FIFA Women's World Cup has been another big tournament for Blue Whale Global Media, with around 200 professionals involved, and near 1000 different jobs handled.

You have been an important part of the success we've achieved in terms of working with several departments of FIFA and HBS, reaching a very high quality level and professional standard.

We would hereby also like to offer you a short Letter of Recommendation that might be helpful for your résumé or your LinkedIn page. Feel free to use it for future projects or clients. Please find the text below in this letter.

We hope you have enjoyed the project as much as we have, and we look forward to working with you again in the near future.

Thanks, yours sincerely,

Remy Wigmans, on behalf of Blue Whale Global Media:

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my personal recommendation for Ryoma Inoue.

Ryoma successfully worked with us on our FIFA Women's World Cup 2019 project, and brought the top-level professionalism we needed for this assignment.

I very much appreciate the quality he brought in terms of translating/ transcribing/ proofreading skills, level of English, football knowledge and speed of delivery.

Our workflow strictly requires candidates who can work under pressure and adapt to our innovative workflow and latest technology. I am pleased to confirm that Ryoma truly is one of those people.

It was a pleasure working with him, and I happily recommend him to any future client; he is a team player and would be a great asset to any organization.

Sincerely,

Remy Wigmans
