[Add separate entries for each relevant post occupied, starting with the most recent.]
I started take an interest in foreign very soon, about six years. I loved to listen to those words, sentences that they were incomprehensible for my ears. English was my first languages and I started like self-taught. The years passed and I specialized me in English, above all in British English and American English. Both we have different slangs and idiomatic expressions.

I continued to study other language: French, German and Spanish. In 1996 I joined at Santa Caterina da Siena Institute for foreign languages at Mestre (Venice), Italy, for degree In foreign language.

In 2001, I entered in Information Engineering Faculty, at Siena University, Italy. I worked for European translation agency and private offices with NDA (non-disclosure agreement) .I have many interest in some fields:

Medicine, Information engineering, Microelectronic, Law and Economy.
