Breaking the language barrier

CONNECTING YOU AND YOUR BUSINESS TO THE WORLD

In a world of ever-increasing globalisation, the need for a constant presence for both individuals and businesses is paramount. But the question is: how do you communicate effectively with your audience and potential business partners? As a young and vibrant Language Service Provider, AEG.Communications provides you with the tools, experience and quality to connect you and your business to the world.

With a large team of professional language practitioners and other experts, an expanding pool of working languages and specialisations in different industries, all coupled with the right technology, we offer you quality and professional translation, interpreting, editing and proofreading services.

CUSTOM SOLUTIONS

Whether you are an individual with personal documents, or a business working on large-scale assignments, we offer solutions tailored to your various needs.

flexible solutions for your everyday needs

OUR WORKING LANGUAGES

Offering services to clients based around the globe requires us to constantly expand our pool of languages, which currently includes:

Afrikaans, Arabic, Catalan, Chinese (Cantonese, Simplified, Traditional), Dutch, English (UK, Canada, South Africa), French (France, Canada), German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Macedonian, Portuguese (Brazilian, European), Russian, Spanish, Swahili, Ukrainian and Zulu.

We also work in partnership with various agencies around the world to provide the same services in the languages that we do not directly offer.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

To be able to deliver a final product that exceeds your expectations, our translation department uses a 3-step Quality Assurance process that consists in: translation, editing and proofreading, all done by qualified translators/editors/proofreaders. As regards standalone editing/proofreading and interpretation assignments, our professional language practitioners are all native language speakers, certified editors/proofreaders, Sworn Interpreters and/or members of professional bodies.

DAY BY DAY, WORD BY WORD, WE BUILD A LEGACY TO STAND ON

WHAT WE OFFER

We translate, edit and proofread a wide range of documents (personal, academic or technical) in various fields: human & social sciences, business, finance, engineering, IT, international affairs, medicine & healthcare, defence & security, law, etc.

We also provide different types of interpreting services that can be in either simultaneous, consecutive or whispered (chuchotage) mode: conference interpreting, community interpreting and escort interpreting.

- A reliable & ethical service
- A broad range of languages and specialisations
- Custom solutions to suit your needs
- Advanced technology for high-quality products
- Experienced & highly-qualified language practitioners
- Professional courtesy & competitive rates

WEB SOLUTIONS

Our online presence allows us to service clients based around the globe. In addition, technological innovation has enabled us to remain key-players in the field by always adapting and meeting the evolving demands of our customers.

TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS

In addition to the usual technology, we deliver quality products thanks to our cloud-based Project Management system and our range of specialist translation software (SDL Trados® and Wordfast® amongst others).
