

Established in 1985, Bi-Lingua is a Corporate Member of the Institute of Translation and Interpreting. Based in Hampshire, UK, our main business is foreign language training, and our translation activity is mainly directed at offering a full service to our language training clients. We welcome applications from freelance translators, but these MUST include guideline rates [for agencies] in order to be considered.