

The background features abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in various shades of green, ranging from light lime to dark forest green. These shapes are primarily located on the left and right sides of the frame, leaving a large white central area. The shapes are composed of triangles and polygons, some with thin white outlines.

Luís Peazê
Introduction

Luís Peazê

Introduction

Luís Peazê is a journalist, writer and translator. Entrepreneur by heart, he is the president founder of the Brazilian Coastal Institute (BRCostal – Instituto Brasil Costal) awarded with the medal Friend of the Brazilian Navy and Brazilian Navy School. Granted the friendship title of Brazilian Consul of the Wooden Boat Foundation (Port Townsend, WA). Yet related to boating, have been sailing and building woodenboats since 1994 when he built single handed a 30 foot yacht in Australia and started to sail for the first time in life from the Tasman Sea, Coral Reef, Arafura and Timor Seas, with his wife. An adventure told in the best seller Alvidia – Yet Another Horizon (published in Portuguese in 2000 to be released in English in 2017). Author of dozen of books, including his most recent title Santiago and the Sea

He has built true replicas of the Herreshoff Columbia 11'–1/2", two units of which are sailing in USA (Hawaii and Vermont). - Luis has lectured to a variety of publics, from high school students to college and business peers; between 2000 and 2006 he engaged with Oceanographers to help the recognition of the Ministry of Education at Federal level for the validation/accreditation of the discipline as a University course, until then not recognized and that all the marine studies has been commissioned to only marine biologists in Brazil, not anymore.

Luis has been computer programmer, system analyst, awarded Ad-man (for major accounts such as Pan Am, Louis Vuitton, Perrier, etc) and entrepreneur in Brazil, Australia and USA. Since the year 2000 became writer, journalist and translator, commissioned to translate among other works For Whom the Bell Tolls by Ernest Hemingway into Portuguese; member of the Hemingway Society and Pen Club in USA. Luis Peazê maintain an online zine since 1997 Conversa no Píer / Pier's Chat and own a California registered business, Capt Lui – Knotting & Boats LLC.

Luís Peazê
e: contato@luispeaze.com |
T: +1 415.315 9894 +55
+21 99629 3334
Skype luispeaze
www.luispeaze.com

Capt Lui - Knotting & Boats LLC
hello@captlui.com
www.captlui.com

"Knotting is important, we are all tied"

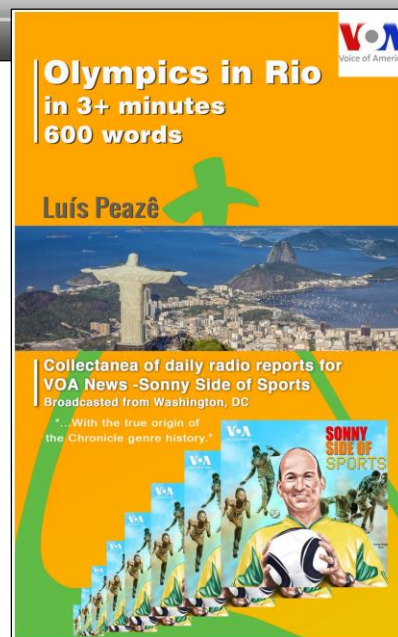

Luís Peazê Introduction

GRN Live (London), Intl. Correspondent; Channel 5 News London, Channel 24 Paris, CBS Toronto, Fox New York e Voice of America USA, among others...

Daily report from January /August 2016 for Voice of America radio show - collectanea published in book

Luís Peazê Introduction

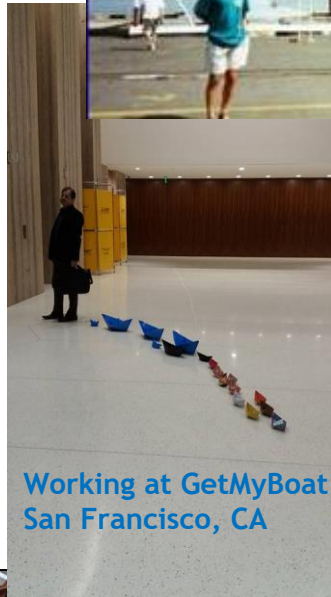

Reporting Pope in Rio

World Cup 2014 in Rio

Spaulding, Sausalito, CA

Working at GetMyBoat
San Francisco, CA

McConaghy, Sydney, helping building Morning Glory

Interviewing a soccer
legend, Carlos Alberto
Torres, Rio

Meeting Venice, CA
IGKT - knot tyers South
Pacific

Capt Lui atelier
knotting & boats

Building a PocketShip

Luís Peazê

Introduction

Refferals in USA, to name few:

- John Hemingway - grand son of the Ernest Hemingway
- Kaci Cronkhite - the wind woman, single handed sailor related to all Wooden Boat Festivals around the globe
- John Harris - owner of Chesapeake Light Craft, MD
- Lindsey Philpott - IGKT - International Guild of Knot Tyers, chapter East Coast USA
- Sonny Young - Voice of America, official US governament broadcaster
- Letters of endorsement from NorthWest Maritime Center & Wooden Boat Foundation, Port Townsend, WA
- Peter Lane - anchor man at Channel 5 News, London
- Henry Pierce - founder/director at GRN Live international correspondent network

Thank you for your time.