

TAKING BUSINESSES FURTHER INTO CENTRAL ASIAN MARKETS

With our support and experience, businesses can access new markets and expand their reach to new audiences.

ABOUT SILKROAD

Established in 2010, SilkRoad is one of the fastest growing Central Asian language service providers.

Like the Silk Road of Marco Polo's day, the important meeting place and trade route passing through Turkey and connecting Asia to Europe and North Africa, we provide safe and clear passage across many countries and access to a wide variety of cultures.

At SilkRoad we offer first-class translation and localisation services with our specialist team of highly qualified linguists, each with a minimum of 5 years' experience in their field.

We operate throughout Eastern Europe, Asia and Africa, with a focus on providing reliable translation services in these core languages:

At SilkRoad we can assist on a wide range of subjects, whilst specialising in technical areas such as IT solutions, automotive, engineering, medical healthcare, energy, financial investments, legal, marketing and a variety of business documents.

Our expert linguists are not only highly experienced translators, but also business-savvy negotiators who can handle all communications professionally, bringing about the best possible outcome while meeting the specific needs of your company.

WHY SILKROAD?

We not only handle translation, but also have in-house DTP and engineering teams, equipped with all the latest CAT tools such as Trados, SDLX, Passolo, MemoQ and Across.

On top of expert translation services, we offer professional proofreading and editing, testing, desktop publishing, software localisation, and transcription services.

Specialist language teams made up of professional native speakers with a minimum of 5 years' translation experience and delivering unique quality and quick turnaround time.

A wide range of languages covered, including: Kazakh, Uzbek, Kyrgyz, Turkmen, Azerbaijani, Armenian, Tajik, Georgian, Russian, Turkish, Kurdish, Belarusian, Ukrainian and many more.

Assistance with technical subjects such as IT, telecoms, finance, marketing, healthcare, engineering, science and energy.

In-country language specialists available 24/7 to deal with a variety of tasks, providing a full range of translation and localisation services in a fast-paced environment.

SILKROAD HISTORY

The Silk Road is a series of trade and cultural transmission routes that were central to cultural interaction throughout the Asian continent. This vital road and meeting place connected the East to the West by linking traders, merchants, pilgrims, monks, soldiers, nomads, urban dwellers and people from all walks of life, from China all the way to the Mediterranean Sea.

Throughout the ages, this meeting point and trade route was a vital lifeline for the sharing of ideas, products, cultures and knowledge throughout the whole region.

MISSION

Our mission is to deliver high-quality translation and localization services that help our customers' business development and to facilitate international communication as a basic starting point towards achieving the concept of globalization.

We have specialised translation and business experts on hand 24/7 to provide a range of cost-effective solutions in a fast-paced corporate environment.
