WORK EXPERIENCE

Freelance Content Writing

(September, 2021 – Present)

Written for Commercial Projects and Art Pieces. Looking to write copy for marketing and content for cultural and social science projects.

Ambassador, corridor.law, Delhi, India

(March, 2021 – August, 2021)

corridor.law is a legal tech company incorporated in Delhi aiming to create an online platform for legal professionals. I am their representative in Karnataka and am largely playing a managerial role with a specific focus on development of the product and its marketing.

Legislative Assistant and Communication Assistant -- Office of Dr. Shashi Tharoor, Member of Parliament

(June, 2018 – May, 2019)

The LAMP fellowship is a program for the youth of the country to be mentored by Members of Parliament (MP). The fellows are selected through a rigorous competitive process to be allotted to the MP. The work I did as a fellow are:

- Drafting questions, interventions and bills that primarily focused on human rights for the parliament session.
- Writing briefs on government bills for debates in the parliament and assisting in writing editorial pieces on them.
- Organizing and coordinating the MP's literary events and political work.

At the end of the fellowship, I continued as his Communication Assistant for the 2019 General Elections where my main responsibility was coordinating with constituents of Thiruvananthapuram, INC party workers and the Media.
