COVER LETTER

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Linguist position at your Company as advertised. With a strong background in linguistics and extensive experience in translation, proofreading, and localization, I am confident I can contribute effectively to your team.

My name is Emmanuel, and I am a native speaker of both German and Spanish. Throughout my career, I have demonstrated a passion for bridging cultural gaps through language, ensuring that every translation captures the essence and nuances of the original text.

During my tenure at Armedangels from 2017 to 2020, I translated various documents, including legal contracts, technical manuals, marketing materials, and business correspondence. Subsequently, as a Spanish legal Translator at Banco Popular Español from 2020 to 2021, I contributed my linguistic expertise to a renowned financial institution.

In addition to my practical experience, I hold a Master of Arts degree from the University of Aberdeen and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Universität Konstanz, both focusing on linguistics and communication. Furthermore, I have received awards such as the Goethe-Institut Award and ATA Translation Award, which attest to my proficiency and dedication in the field.

During my most recent role as an AI Writer/Trainer at SCALE AI, I specialized in artificial intelligence-driven content creation and training, enhancing my skills in writing and training methodologies.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to work with your great company. I am eager to bring my translation, proofreading, and localization expertise to contribute to your team's success.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my skills and experiences align with the needs of Your company.

Sincerely,
Emmanuel
