About me

I am an English to Brazilian Portuguese translator with a bachelor degree in Translation and Interpretation. I have experience with translation, proofreading, subtitling, localization, translation for dubbing and quality assurance.

My previous works include translation of websites, mobile apps, scientific papers, technical manuals, questionnaires and marketing material. I have worked for end-clients such as eBuyNow, Motorola, Wafour, Valmet and Photomyne.

Moreover, I am a highly organized, detail-oriented and passionate professional. I am always committed to delivering the best quality translation and meet the deadlines. I have personal glossaries and dictionaries and I own and use several CAT Tools.
