RWS TRANSLATION SERVICE

2021 - 2023

- As a professional translator, I had the honor of being part of a transformative project that transcended linguistic barriers and brought communities together. Tasked with translating a series of children's books from English into Danish, I embarked on a journey to capture not just the words on the page, but the essence of innocence, wonder, and imagination that knows no bounds.
- With each story, I delved into the hearts and minds of characters, ensuring that their voices rang true in both languages. Beyond mere translation, I sought to preserve the magic of storytelling, infusing each line with the same sense of wonder and delight that captivated readers in the original language.
- The impact of this project extended far beyond the pages of a book. Through the power of translation, children from different corners of the world were able to share in the joy of discovery, empathy, and friendship. Witnessing the smiles, the laughter, and the spark of curiosity ignited by these stories reinforced my belief in the transformative power of language.
- In this experience, I not only honed my linguistic skills but also deepened my understanding of the profound connections that can be forged through translation. It reaffirmed my commitment to bridging divides, fostering understanding, and building a world where communication knows no bounds.
